This Week's Wine Picks

Dear Grasing's Wine Club Members,

It's been over 4 weeks now since we've been "shelter-in-place" and I'm sure the cellar has taken a hit! If you need to restock or try some new profiles, here are a few of my favorites.

This week's picks:

2018 Rimauresq "Rosé", Côtes de Provence - with the weather warming up, this is a great wine, very classic Rosé \$20

2018 Jean-Marie Reverdy Sancerre - crisp and clean, our best selling wine at this restaurant \$28

2016 Rodney Strong, "Chalk Hill", Chardonnay - as Wilford Wong of Wine.com says "just pop the cork and enjoy" \$20

2012 Pelerin Rosella's Vineyard, Pinot Noir - What can we say? A micro winery that produces a great wine that over delivers \$50

2014 Rosenblum Cellars, "Rockpile", Zinfandel - Great with barbecue, medium to full bodied \$24

2017 CRU by Vineyard 29, Cabernet Sauvignon - Cocoa, crème de cassis, chocolate covered blueberries. Oh My! \$70 (Don't tell the winery.)

We do have more! Just give us a call or drop a line to let us know what you're looking for. As we don't have a standard mark up on items (most restaurants do an across the board multiplier), we don't have a fixed percentage off of restaurant pricing.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
Grasing's Team
