This Week's Wine Picks

Dear Grasing's Wine Club Members,

As we sink down even deeper into the couch, please reach out with any requests that you may have. Right now, you can't sit down at your favorite restaurant to your meal with your favorite wine but you can still purchase your favorite wines from our restaurant's wine cellar. This is a great chance to buy wines that are not often available at retail and at lower prices than a restaurant would normally charge. Here are a few of my favorites for this week.

2007 Manso de Velasco, Cabernet Sauvignon

From the Torres Family of Spain, their Chilean property makes this beautiful cabernet from 100-year-old pre-Phylloxera Vines. Elegant and smooth tannins. $35

2015 Caymus Special Select

Plum sauce, blackberry, melted licorice. We made a great buy and passing on the savings! One of the best prices in the country. $165      $900 – 6 bottles

2017 Occidental, Pinot Noir

From Steve Kistler, primary red fruits, finishes long with nice tannins. $65

2009 Cristal Bubbles

Have a bottle of Cristal ready for when we come out of the "stay-at-home". Always a favorite! (97's and 96's across the board for critic scores!) $195

2015 Domaine Leflaive, Mâcon-Verze

A beautiful white burgundy with flavor of peach and ripe apple, nice acidity. From world's one of the great white Burgundy producers. $49.50

Not only we have a lot of wine but also have access to much more and liquor as well. If it's a hard to get item, it may be on a case buy, but let us know!

Thank you,
